WASHINGTON, D.C. (May 20, 2025) — The U.S. is always unveiling new experiences and destinations, and Brand USA invites visitors to explore them all. Travelers can expect a wave of new additions, major milestones, and exciting developments for 2025 and into 2026. With so much happening in cities, national parks, and beyond, now is the perfect time to explore what's new across the USA.

"There are so many reasons to visit the USA and even more reasons to return," said Fred Dixon, president and CEO of Brand USA. "The joy of traveling to the U.S. comes from the constant sense of discovery—whether it's a new attraction, a reimagined destination, or a once-in-a-lifetime event. There's always something new on the horizon, and we welcome travelers from around the world to experience it all."

GETTING AROUND

Gulf Shores International Airport \(GUF\) marks a historic milestone for Alabama, officially welcoming its first commercial flight on May 21, 2025. Allegiant Air will connect travelers directly to the white-sand beaches of Gulf Shores and Orange Beach from six U.S. destinations, including Houston, Texas; Cincinnati, Ohio; and Kansas City, Missouri—offering a new and convenient gateway to Alabama's Gulf Coast.

The LAX/Metro Transit Center is set to open in June of 2025. The station at Aviation Boulevard and 96th Street will connect to the K Line and C Line, and will eventually connect to the LAX automated people mover train (which is under construction and expected to open in early 2026).

The Amtrak Mardi Gras Service will travel twice daily between New Orleans and Mobile via Coastal Mississippi beginning summer 2025. In addition to travel between New Orleans and Mobile, the cities of Bay Saint Louis, Gulfport, Biloxi and Pascagoula will also have same-day connections in both directions between New Orleans and Chicago, via Memphis.

American Cruise Lines \(ACL\) will offer a selection of 50-plus-day river cruises starting in 2026, coinciding with the United States' 250th anniversary, including three signature itineraries—The Great United States, Spring Across America, and Great American Fall Foliage.

Holland America's brand new itinerary takes travelers from the glacier-strewn waters of Alaska to the tropical Goddess-dwelling volcanoes of Hawaii. Departing from Seattle on August 31, 2025, this "28-Day Glaciers & Volcanoes: Alaska to Hawaii" voyage sails from some of Alaska's most scenic (and less crowded) ports to Hawaii's awe-inspiring beaches and volcanoes for an unforgettable journey.

AN EVOLVING CULINARY LANDSCAPE

The MICHELIN Guide has expanded to encompass the "American South" region, going beyond the major urban cities and diving into more rural areas of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee (encompassing the pre-existing Atlanta Guide).
