May 28, 2025

WASHINGTON, D.C. (May 28, 2025) – Brand USA successfully concluded its Canada Connect 2025 series with nearly 1,000 appointments across five cities nationally. The multi-city initiative to strengthen ties between U.S. tourism organizations and Canadian travel professionals included East Coast events in Toronto and Montreal from April 28 to May 1, and West Coast events in Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver from May 20 to 22.

“The success of the Canada Connect series reinforces our commitment to the Canadian market and the relationships our teams and partners have built over the last several years,” said Jackie Ennis, Vice President of Global Trade Development at Brand USA. “Canada remains the top international market for U.S. inbound travel, and these events allow us to engage with the Canadian travel trade and showcase the diversity of U.S. destinations. In memory of our late colleague Casey Canevari’s unwavering dedication and passion for trans-border travel, we will continue to build on these lasting partnerships that drive future travel to the United States.”

Canada Connect Multi-City Series

Canada Connect East opened in Toronto on April 28 at the Toronto Marriott City Centre Hotel welcoming 35 premier U.S. destinations and tourism organizations before heading to Montreal on May 1 at Le Centre Sheraton Montreal. On April 28, the event series opened with three engaging keynote presentations and panel discussions to help U.S. destination partners and travel organizations understand Canadian travel sentiment and the motivations and barriers to U.S. international inbound travel. Moderated by executive members of Brand USA’s trade team and Expedia Group Advertising, panel discussion topics included;

- Understanding Canadian Travelers: Current Sentiment, Motivations, and Barriers to U.S. Travel
- The Power of Partnerships: Travel Agencies, Consortia, and Destination Success
- Strong Recovery Through Passion: Leveraging Sports and Events Tourism in Canada’s Current Economic Climate

Both the U.S. Consul General in Toronto, Baxter Hunt and Consul General in Montreal, Robert P. Sanders gave opening remarks at each host city’s event to an audience of over 70 Canadian Travel Trade members. Building on the momentum of strong turnout in Canada Connect East events in Toronto and Montréal, Brand USA also hosted events in Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver. The initiative gave U.S. travel brands the opportunity to engage directly with Canadian travel advisors, media and tour operators, helping to reinforce cross-border collaboration across every major market coast to coast. Prize giveaways, including vacation packages with airfare, were also offered to inspire travel to the United States.
