

Academy Award® Winner, Robert Redford, narrates MacGillivray Freeman Film's newest 3D documentary "NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE" Commemorating the U.S. National Park Service's 100-Year Anniversary on the Giant Screen

Laguna Beach, California - July 30, 2015

MacGillivray Freeman Films in partnership with Brand USA is pleased to announce their next release for IMAX® and giant-screen theatres – "NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE." Presented by Expedia, Inc., the 3D film is scheduled for global release on February 12, 2016 to coincide with the centennial of the National Park Service next year

Narrated by Academy Award® winner Robert Redford, "NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE" takes audiences on the ultimate off-trail adventure into the nation's awe-inspiring great outdoors and untamed wilderness. Told from the perspective of national parks ambassador and world-class mountaineer Conrad Anker, his stepson Max Lowe (an adventure photographer) and family friend Rachel Pohl, these modern-day explorers visit spectacularly wild and beautiful places – including Yellowstone, the Everglades, the Redwoods, and Arches – revealing a tapestry of natural wonders that will inspire the adventurer in all of us. Captured with IMAX 3D cameras and shown in full glory on the world's largest screens, "NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE" celebrates the majesty of our national parks and treasured landscapes and highlights the importance of protecting them for all.

"NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE captures the stunning beauty of our wild places and reminds us these landscapes are an essential part of the human spirit," states narrator and conservationist Robert Redford.

"I can't think of a more perfect narrator for 'NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE' than Robert Redford, whose passion for the outdoors and environmental interests as well as his distinctive voice and charisma, makes him the ideal storyteller for our film," says Director, Greg MacGillivray. "There are 407 national parks in our country that many families have not been able to explore. Our hope is that 'NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE' will encourage our audiences to discover the beauty and sanctuary of these American treasures."

"We shot 'NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE' in 30 national parks over a nine month period," says Shaun MacGillivray, Producer of "NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE" and President of MacGillivray Freeman Films. "We had four crews shooting the film including a time lapse crew, aerial crew, ground crew and TV crew. Using IMAX cameras in these vast national parks enabled us to capture every vantage point of these natural wonders and bring the most vivid colors and landscapes to our audiences. The addition of Robert Redford narrating this film for us is the pinnacle of this project, tying all of these remarkable elements together."

"NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE" follows in the tradition of MacGillivray Freeman's award-winning Great Adventure Films - including "EVEREST", "DOLPHINS", "JOURNEY INTO AMAZING CAVES" and "TO THE ARCTIC" – that are set in some of the most extraordinary locations on the planet.

Working in collaboration with Brand USA – which is the destination-marketing organization for the United States - allows for "NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE" to become the centerpiece of their global marketing initiative for their 2015-2016 "Great Outdoors" campaign.

"We are thrilled to have Robert Redford lend his voice to the project," said Thomas Garzilli, senior vice president of global partner marketing for Brand USA. "As the destination marketing organization for the United States, we never saw ourselves in the movie business, but now, as we wrap up post production of 'NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE', we can't imagine a better way to tell the stories of some of our country's most treasured assets – the national parks."

Additionally, the film will be presented by Expedia, Inc, one of the world's leading travel companies with a multi-million dollar partnership to bring worldwide film marketing support to both domestic and international exhibitors.

While simultaneously shooting "NATIONAL PARKS ADVENTURE," MacGillivray Freeman produced an 8-part TV series for Travel Channel, "America. The Beautiful." that will debut on that network August 9th and encore in February 2016, also narrated by Robert Redford.
