DANI CAMPANA

Danielle (Dani) Campana works as a senior manager, partner engagement for Brand USA. She strives to facilitate open communication between the organization and its partners with the goals of ensuring seamless implementation of projects and fostering a positive partner experience.

Prior to joining Brand USA, Dani worked as a Membership Manager at Destination DC. In this role, she gained experience in cultivating dynamic relationships and worked with an array of businesses, including restaurants, attractions, and convention service providers to name a few. She also worked for Visit Howard County, connecting visitors with memorable travel experiences. Dani is proud to bring the knowledge and expertise gained in her past roles to her current role at Brand USA. She has been recognized as a US Travel Emerging Leader, class of 2021.